

Sample HR Policy Manual

Purpose

This sample document is for learning and demonstration purposes only.

Recruitment

Hiring is based on qualifications, skills, and business needs.

Probation

New employees complete a 6-month probation period.

Working Hours

Standard hours are 9:00 AM–6:00 PM, Monday to Friday.

Attendance

Employees should report on time and notify managers of absences.

Leave

Annual, sick, and casual leave are available according to company rules.

Code of Conduct

Employees must behave professionally and respectfully.

Dress Code

Business casual attire is expected unless role-specific requirements apply.

Performance Reviews

Performance is reviewed periodically with constructive feedback.

Training

Employees are encouraged to attend learning and development programs.

Confidentiality

Company information must be protected and shared only when authorized.

Health & Safety

Employees must follow workplace safety procedures.

Anti-Harassment

Harassment, bullying, and discrimination are prohibited.

Disciplinary Action

Policy violations may result in warnings or other disciplinary measures.

Resignation

Employees should provide notice as specified in their employment agreement.